

IMPORTANT NOTICE ABOUT CONSTRUCTION IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD

A NEW ERA OF INTERNET AND OTHER COX SERVICES IS COMING.

Dear Resident,

Cox Communications is committed to offering our customers the latest in service and entertainment technologies, and is excited to be bringing a new era of internet and other Cox services. At times, this requires optimizing our equipment and upgrading our network throughout the communities we serve.

Cox Communications wants you to be aware of this work as it may involve digging, changing out electronics, and/or integrating newly installed cable within the public utility easements adjacent to your property.

Construction of this nature is typically completed over several weeks. Our crews will make every effort to minimize disruptions during their scheduled work and shall restore all areas to their original condition.

THE CONTRACTOR ASSIGNED TO THIS PHASE OF ACTIVITY IS:

After the construction activities are complete, you will be contacted by a direct sales representative or other communication regarding how we can bring you our best offer ever.

We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience.
